The Yale School of Medicine is seeking a full-time faculty member at the rank of Instructor in the Department of Internal Medicine, Program in Addiction Medicine and the Section of General Internal Medicine. This individual will be considered core faculty in the Program in Addiction Medicine, the Addiction Medicine Fellowship, and the Collaborative Behavioral Health and Addiction Medicine in Primary Care (CHAMP) Program. The individual should be passionate about medical education and clinical care.

The individual who fills this position will provide direct clinical care for patients with primary care needs and/or substance use disorder in both the inpatient and outpatient settings, potentially including criminal justice and community settings, participate in activities related to addiction medicine education at the undergraduate, graduate, and continuing education levels. The ideal applicant will be academically oriented, have demonstrated excellent patient care and teaching skills, a commitment to scholarship in Addiction Medicine, and be board certified or board eligible in a primary care specialty and Addiction Medicine.

The position carries a full-time faculty appointment at Yale School of Medicine as an Instructor. Academic responsibilities will include teaching and supervision of fellows, residents, advanced practice professionals and students, curriculum development, and clinical research opportunities.

Interested applicants should apply by uploading a CV to https://apply.interfolio.com/74191.

For additional information and inquiries, please send an email to the search committee chair, Jeanette Tetrault, Jeanette.tetrault@yale.edu. For additional information on the Yale School of Medicine, please visit: https://medicine.yale.edu For additional information on the Yale Program in Addiction Medicine, please visit: http://addictionmedicine.yale.edu

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Yale University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Yale values diversity among its students, staff, and faculty and strongly welcomes applications from women, persons with disabilities, protected veterans, and underrepresented minorities.